RNK, Inc., d/b/a RNK Telecom
Subscriber Acknowledgement Report – September 1, 2005
FCC WC Docket No. 05-196

In accordance with the August 26, 2005 Public Notice issued by the Enforcement Bureau of the Federal Communications Commission (the “Commission”), in WC Docket No. 05-196, RNK, Inc. d/b/a RNK Telecom (“RNK”) hereby submits responses to the following inquiries:

1. Detailed explanation regarding current compliance with the notice and warning sticker requirements.

Prior to the release of the Commission’s First Report and Order and Notice of Proposed Rulemaking¹ on June 3, 2005, RNK had provided notice of limitations of emergency services associated with interconnected VoIP services (“IVS”), to subscribers through RNK’s independent resellers and agents (RNK offers wholesale IVS), via “No 911” warning stickers (when 911 services were not available), the “Frequently Asked Questions” section on its www.rnkvoip.com website, and inserts included with customer premises equipment (CPE) that identified the differences between IVS and more traditional wireline services in regards to the availability of 911/E911. Additionally, in mid-May 2005, RNK made available to its independent resellers and agents a web-based registration program to help inform their new subscribers of potential limitations associated with dialing 911 from their IVS. This “click-through” process was completed by new subscribers prior to account activation, and focused on familiarizing subscribers with potential limitations associated with dialing 911 from their VoIP service. If the subscribers acknowledged their receipt, understanding and agreement to the limitations of service, they could click the “I Agree” button and activate their IVS.

¹ In the Matters of IP-Enabled Services (WC Docket No. 04-36) and E911 Requirements for IP-Enabled Service Providers (WC Docket No. 05-196), FCC 05-116 (June 3, 2005) (“VoIP E911 First Report and Order”)

Subsequent to the release of the VoIP E911 First Report and Order, RNK has taken the following steps toward compliance:

- On July 15, 2005, RNK sent letters to each of its independent resellers and agents notifying them of their compliance obligations pursuant to the VoIP E911 First Report and Order. An example of the letter is attached hereto as Exhibit A.
- On the same date (July 15, 2005), RNK implemented a more refined web-based process on the subscribers' account page through which subscribers are notified of the specific limitations of E911 associated with their IVS, depending on where they are located. All subscribers (whether existing or new), may either acknowledge and agree to the limitations by clicking "I Agree," or may disagree with the limitations (thereby electing not to activate service, or to discontinue existing service) by clicking "I Disagree." The various notices reviewed by subscribers are attached hereto as Exhibit B. In the event a subscriber clicks "I Agree," the subscriber receives an email confirmation through which the subscriber may click on the link to verify acknowledgement of the limitations of E911 associated with their IVS. Subscribers that prefer to complete the acknowledgement process through a paper form may submit the acknowledgement by fax or mail.
- On July 20, 2005, RNK followed up with each of its independent resellers and agents with an email version of RNK's July 15th letter, reminding them of the impending initial compliance deadline for subscriber notice of July 29, 2005.
- Additionally, on July 20, 2005, RNK mailed stickers detailing the limitations of 911 service, along with additional "No 911" stickers to its independent resellers and agents (who had been using "No 911" stickers since approximately November 2004) with the letter attached hereto as Exhibit C. RNK advised its independent resellers and agents that the stickers had to be forwarded to their subscribers by July 29, 2005 and that they must advise their subscribers to place the stickers on, or near, their CPE. In those instances in which RNK provisions CPE, it includes the appropriate warning stickers with the CPE, along with an insert that further notifies subscribers of the limitations of E911 service and advises subscribers to place the stickers on, or near, their CPE. RNK has also made available the CPE insert to its independent resellers and agents, which includes text that further notifies subscribers of limitations of emergency services associated with their IVS.
- On July 25, 2005, RNK left all subscribers who had not yet completed the acknowledgement process the following voice mail:

This is an important notice regarding emergency services associated with your VoIP account. There are critical limitations of your VoIP service related to 911 dialing that you need to be aware of. Please visit the "My Account" website associated with your service to learn of these limitations and complete a simple acknowledgement process by this Friday, July 29th. If you would prefer to receive notice of the 911 limitations through a paper form, please contact your VoIP sales representative. Because of an FCC Order, you must complete this process by July 29th to avoid an interruption in your VoIP service. We apologize for any inconvenience, and thank you for your cooperation in this process

- On July 26, 2005, RNK suspended access to the account pages of those subscribers who had not yet acknowledged receipt of notice of limitations of E911 service. Suspension did not prevent subscribers from making and receiving calls from their IVS, but rather prevented them from completing online functions associated with their account (e.g., reviewing billing activity), until the subscribers complete the acknowledgement process.
- On August 2, 2005 (after the Commission extended the compliance deadline for notice), RNK left all subscribers who had not yet completed the confirmation process the following voice mail through their IVS:

"This is a second notice regarding 911 services associated with your VOIP account. Due to an FCC order, you must read and acknowledge the limitations of your 911 service by August 29th, or we will be forced to suspend your service. Please visit your "My Account" website to complete this process. If you would prefer to receive this information on paper, please contact your sales representative. Thank you for your cooperation with this process."

Steps taken by RNK subsequent to filing its August 10, 2005 compliance report:

- On Friday, August 12, 2005, RNK left all subscribers who had not yet completed the confirmation process the following voicemail through their IVS:

"Important! This is a third notice regarding 911 services associated with your VOIP account. Due to an FCC order, you must read and acknowledge the limitations of your 911 service by August 29th, or we will be forced to suspend your service. Please visit your "My Account" website to complete this process. If you have already done this and are receiving this voice mail in error, please contact your sales representative. Thank you for your cooperation."

- On Friday, August 19, 2005, RNK sent the following email to all subscribers who had had not completed the confirmation process:

Subject: IMPORTANT – Your VoIP service could be disconnected!

Due to an FCC Order, all VoIP users are required to acknowledge the important limitations of 911 services associated with their accounts by Monday, August 29th. Our records indicate that you have not yet completed this acknowledgement. If you do not do so by 8/29, your VoIP service will be disconnected as required by the FCC!

To avoid disconnection of your service, please take a moment to complete the acknowledgement process at your "My Account" website:

[Insert link that takes subscriber to web-based acknowledgement process]

If you believe you have completed this process and are receiving this email in error, please contact your sales representative.

Thank you for your cooperation.

- On Thursday, August 25, 2005, RNK sent a recorded call to all subscribers who had not completed the acknowledgement process that advised subscribers of the following:

"Please listen to this important 911 services message. Due to an FCC order, you must read and acknowledge the limitations of your 911 service by this Monday, August 29th, or we will be forced to suspend your service.

Please visit your "My Account" website to complete this process. If you have already done this and are receiving this message in error, please contact your sales representative. Thank you for your cooperation."

- On Monday, August 26, 2005, RNK sent the following reminder email to those subscribers who had completed the web-based acknowledgement process, but who had not yet verified their receipt of the notice of limitations associated with their VoIP service through a confirmatory email:

We've noticed that you were sent an email confirmation from our website more than 24 hours ago, and have not yet responded. Your VOIP account still needs to have its E911 service limitations confirmed. Please take a moment to choose one of the links below.

By clicking on the "I AGREE" link below, you are confirming that you received and understood notice of the limitations of emergency services, and that you intended to agree to them.

[I AGREE]

If you do not agree with the limitations of emergency services, click the "I DISAGREE" link below. If you do this, your sales representative will contact you to cancel your VOIP service.

[I DISAGREE]

2. Quantification of how many of the provider's subscribers, on a percentage basis, have submitted an affirmative acknowledgement, as of the date of the report, and an estimation of the percentage of subscribers from whom the provider does not expect to receive an acknowledgement by September 28, 2005.

As of September 1, 2005, approximately 71% of subscribers have submitted an acknowledgement. RNK is presently unable to estimate the percentage of subscribers from whom it does not expect to receive an acknowledgement by September 28, 2005.

3. A detailed description of any and all actions the provider plans on taking towards any of its subscribers that do not affirmatively acknowledge having received and understood the advisory.

RNK plans to deliver additional voice mail reminders, place direct phone calls to subscribers, and may also add a message that subscribers hear before placing an outgoing call. RNK will also encourage its independent resellers to make phone calls to their subscribers.

4. A detailed description of any and all plans to use a “soft” or “warm” disconnect procedure for subscribers that fail to provide an affirmative acknowledgement by September 28, 2005.

As of September 28, 2005, as required by the Commission, RNK will suspend service of those subscribers who have not affirmatively acknowledged RNK’s notification attempts. For those subscribers who currently have access to “911” emergency services through their IVS, RNK will provide a “soft” or “warm” disconnect procedure, which will disallow non-911 outbound calls but, when applicable, will allow subscribers to dial “911” and connect to the appropriate Public Safety Answering Point (PSAP). This “soft” disconnect procedure will also permit subscribers to receive inbound calls so that, whenever possible, emergency personnel will be able to call back a subscriber who dials “911.” In the event a subscriber attempts to place a non-911 outbound call, the subscriber will hear a recorded message advising of the inability to place outbound calls until the subscriber acknowledges the limitations of 911 service. Subscribers will also be advised of the option to press “0” during the message to reach customer service for assistance in completing the acknowledgement process.

Re: Compliance with FCC VoIP 911/E911 Order

Dear Reseller Contact Name:

RNKVoIP sends this letter to help you, as one of our valuable independent resellers, by making you aware of certain rules and requirements related to your VoIP service. As you may already know, on June 29,

2005, the FCC published its VoIP E911 Order² in the Federal Register. The VoIP E911 Order obligates Interconnected VoIP Providers (such as RNKVoIP, and all of its Independent Resellers) to make enhanced 911 service (“E911”) available to their customers as a mandatory feature of the service, just as with traditional phone service. In addition, the VoIP E911 Order requires, among other things, that all existing VoIP customers are notified of limitations of VoIP 911/E911 service and are provided with the ability to update their service address (“Registered Location”) which is where emergency services will respond should they dial “9-1-1.”

“MY ACCOUNT” WEBSITE – NOTICE OF LIMITATIONS OF SERVICE

In order to help you comply with the VoIP E911 Order, RNK has further developed a way for your VoIP customers to get notice by accessing their “My Account” webpage. Accordingly, you must notify all of your customers to review the limitations of VoIP 911/E911 service available on the “My Account” website and acknowledge their receipt of, and consent to, those limitations by Friday, July 22, 2005. Unfortunately, due to the FCC’s VoIP E911 Order, your existing customers who have already “clicked-through” the VoIP 911 disclaimer, must also visit the “My Account” website to verify that they have received the limitations of service and agree to them. If, for any reason, your customers do not wish to get the notice electronically, they may complete the process by sending to you a signed, hard copy acknowledgement of the limitations of service, which can also be found on the “My Account” website. Please fax this signed document to RNK at 781-297-9836. It is crucial that this acknowledgement process is completed by your customers themselves, and not by you or your staff, and a failure to have your customers acknowledge the notice in accordance with this letter may result in the assessment of financial penalties by RNK on a per customer basis, and possibly termination of your VoIP Agreement.

If RNK does not receive acknowledgement from your customers by July 22nd, it will put in place a message through your customers’ VoIP service, that your customers will hear when they attempt to make an outbound call, notifying them that the acknowledgement process must be completed by Friday, July 29, 2005, or their service will be suspended until notice is properly acknowledged. On July 23rd, RNK will also inform your customers about a potential service suspension through a temporary freeze of the “My Account” website to encourage completion of the acknowledgement process. If a customer of Reseller does not acknowledge and agree to the limitations of service by July 29, 2005, RNK will suspend the customer’s service until they complete the notification process. In the event your customer specifically elects not to continue service subject to its limitations, his/her account will be terminated. While RNK regrets that service suspension and/or termination may be an option, adherence to the VoIP E911 Order is of the utmost importance.

WARNING STICKERS

In addition to satisfying these notice requirements, pursuant to the VoIP E911 Order RNK will soon be sending to you warning stickers that identify 911 related limitations with all VoIP services. You must send these stickers to those customers who already have VoIP equipment or to whom you will provide VoIP equipment, and advise your customers to affix these stickers to their VoIP devices.

ADDITIONAL RNKVOIP FEATURES

To allow your customers flexibility to move their VoIP service, and also to comply with the VoIP 911 Order, RNK has improved the “My Account” website to allow your customers to view the Registered Location currently on file as the 911/E911 service address, and to make changes to their Registered Location in the event of a move or travel. Your customers may also make changes to their Registered Location by dialing *77 through their VoIP equipment, which will direct them to RNK's Tier 2 Technical Service Department. It is important that your customers use this tool to ensure that their Registered Location is accurate, and that they make the change several days in advance of a move or travel so that there is no delay in establishing the new Registered Location as the 911/E911 service address and minimal interruption in 911 service.

SUMMARY OF REQUIRED STEPS

In accordance with your Agreement with RNK, and to avoid the interruption or termination of service to your customers, you must take the following steps:

1. Immediately notify your customers that they must acknowledge their receipt of, and consent to, the limitations of VoIP 911/E911 service through the "My Account" website or via a paper consent form by Friday, July 22nd;
2. By July 23rd, contact your customers in the event they have not completed the acknowledgement process to ensure that they complete the process no later than Friday, July 29th, and notify them that a failure to do so will result in their service being suspended;
3. Notify your customers that they are obligated to verify their Registered Location by Friday, July 29th, and make any changes to their Registered Location, through the "My Account" website or by dialing *77 from their VoIP equipment; and
4. Distribute warning stickers to all of your customers by Friday, July 29th that notify them of limitations associated with dialing 911 from their VoIP service, and recommend that your customers place the stickers on their VoIP equipment.

Please also be advised that due to the FCC's change of law, to the extent necessary under the Agreement between RNK and Reseller, this letter serves as notice that RNK will soon be forwarding to you an Amendment to your VoIP Agreement to ensure compliance with the VoIP E911 Order. The Amendment will require continued cooperation from you, as a reseller of RNK's wholesale services, to make certain that your customers are properly notified of limitations associated with 911 dialing from their VoIP service. In the case that no Amendment to your contract is necessary, RNK will be forwarding you a copy of its going-forward policies in this regard.

RNK understands the inconvenience that the FCC's Order will cause, but also realizes that it is in the interest of the safety of your customers. We thank you for your cooperation so far, and look forward to continuing to provide a lucrative, low cost, reliable service to your customers.

Re: Your Compliance with FCC VoIP 911/E911 Order – Warning Stickers

Dear Reseller Contact Name:

As follow up to the letter RNKVoIP recently sent to you regarding the FCC's VoIP 911/E911 Order (the "Order") to help you achieve compliance with the Order, enclosed please find warning stickers that identify limitations of 911 dialing associated with VoIP services.
